County Officers

YORK COUNTY

The original name given by Gorges to his Provinces, extending from the Piscataqua river to the Kennebec, was New Somersetshire, and, in 1638, he sent over his nephew, Capt. William Gorges, to be the governor. By the charter to Gorges of 1639 from Charles I, the whole Province received the name of Maine. In 1658, when Massachusetts assumed and enforced her jurisdiction over the territory, to the western limit of North Yarmouth, in Casco Bay, she gave to it the name of Yorkshire, which extended, by the charter of 1691, over what is now the whole State, and retained until 1760, when the counties of Cumberland and Lincoln were taken from it, and separately incorporated. York County being the oldest County in the State, has a large collection of County records which are to be found at the Court House in Alfred. These cover the period from 1636 to date, and the first six volumes have been mounted between silk by the so-called Emery process. The first General Court was held at Saco in 1640. The Court of General Sessions, Court of Common Pleas and Court of Associates were held at Kittery, Wells and York. The Supreme Judicial Court was begun in 1798 and was held at York until the fall term of 1803, which was held at Alfred. The spring term was held at York until 1834 when it was held at Alfred. A District Court was held from 1839 to 1852 inclusive. Area, 989 square miles. Contains two cities and twenty-six towns. Alfred, shire town. Population—1830, 51,710; 1840, 54,023; 1850, 60,098; 1860, 62,107; 1870, 60,174; 1880, 62,265; 1890, 62,829; 1900, 64,885; 1910, 68,526; 1920, 70,696. In addition, we have the Automobile Registrations for Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

Buyers' Directory

Knowing where to find it is as important as knowing what you want

Intelligent Directory Advertising describes desirable merchandise attractively and directs you to the door of the man who has it for sale.

The City Directory does not compete with any other advertising medium, but supplements and complements all other forms of publicity.

Your City Directory, containing four separate and distinct directories is serving you 365 days in the year.

PRINTING

should be judged not by the amount of money it costs—but

BY THE RESULTS IT BRINGS

You buy printing for definite purposes. If letterheads, you want them to attract attention and be true representatives of your firm. If statements, billheads, forms, they must be neat and attractive. If folders, booklets, or catalogues, you expect them to create a desire for your product or service, and bring back the orders or pave the way for your salesmen.

AS SUPERIOR PRINTERS we would like to care for your printing requirements. We promise you BETTER PRINTING — the kind that brings results.

A letter or phone call will bring someone to discuss your printing problems with you.

Biddeford Directory

Thirteen miles E. of Alfred. On Boston & Maine Railroad. First settled about 1630. Embraced Saco until 1718, when it was incorporated, and named for a town in England from which some of the settlers emigrated. In 1855 it adopted the city charter. 1920—Population, 18,008; Polls, 4,946; Estates, $11,217,317.

The post-office address is given only when the same does not correspond with the name of the town.

When the name of a corporation, factory or firm appears immediately after a name, it indicates the place of business. After the name of the street, the word "street" is omitted.

Saco Directory

Thirteen miles East of Alfred. On Boston & Maine Railroad. Granted by Plymouth Colony to Thomas Lewis and Capt. Richard Bonython, February 12, 1629, who took possession June 28, 1631. First permanent settlement commenced 1623. Passed under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts in 1653. Represented in general court, 1659. Incorporated under name of Biddeford, being the fourth town, Nov., 1718. Divided, and the part east of the river incorporated under name of Pepperellboro', in memory of Gen. Pepperell, June, 1762. Name changed to Saco, Feb. 23, 1805. City charter adopted Feb. 18, 1867. Government organized March 18, 1867. 1920—Population, 6817; Polls, 2,074; Estates, $7,865,068.

The post-office address is given only when the same does not correspond with the name of the town.

When the name of a corporation, factory or firm appears immediately after a name, it indicates the place of business. After the name of the street, the word "street" is omitted.

THE MAINE REGISTER

Complete Business Directory of the Entire State; Revised from Cover to Cover Once a Year

This revision is carefully performed by a corps of conscientious business solicitors, reliable local correspondents and accurate office compilers. We spare no pains to insure the receipt of an annual report even from the small and remote communities, which have no organization.

Every item in all sections of the book is checked and corrected from authentic and original sources.

Satisfied Patrons and Words of Commendation are the Rule

We sincerely believe that we carry on our list of patrons the very finest of Maine's business and professional men and women, as well as a growing list of out of state buyers. We desire and endeavor to secure their most cordial good will by conforming, so far as lies in our power, with their wishes and catering to their interests.

We expect to GIVE and to RECEIVE a SQUARE DEAL
